

Windows Configurations

Windows 2000/XP

- Right Click on “My Network Places” on the desktop and choose “Properties”
- Double click on “Local Area Connection”
- Click “Properties”
- Select Internet Protocol (TCP/IP) and click “Properties”
- Select “Use the following IP address”
- Select “Use the following DNS server addresses”
- Enter all information provided from Smart City such as Gateway, Subnet Mask, IP Addresses, Primary and Secondary DNS’s, etc.

Windows 95/98/ME

- Right Click on “Network Neighborhood” on the desktop and choose “Properties”.
Note: “Network Neighborhood” is called “My Network Places” on ME versions
- Select the “TCP/IP option for your network card and click on the “Properties” button
- Click on the “Gateway” tab and add your Gateway address (Note: be sure to remove any other Gateway addresses first)
- Click on “IP Address” tab and add your IP address and subnet mask
- Click on “DNS Configuration” and “Enable DNS” Make up a name for host:
Domain = “SCN-EXHIBITOR.COM” DNS Server Search Order:

Macintosh

- Open the TCP/IP control panel from your system folder
- Choose “Connect via” Ethernet
- Choose to “Configure” Manually
- Set “IP Address”
- Set “Subnet Mask”
- Set “Router address”
- Enter the Primary and Secondary DNS into the “Name server addr” field
- Close the TCP/IP control panel and choose to save when prompted

3720 Howard Hughes Pkwy
Las Vegas, NV 89109
888-446-6911
702-943-6001 (fax)

