Invitations

Invite your customers and prospects to the 2015 International CES with free registration

Click here to get your unique priority code and use it to send a personal invitation to your customers. This unique code allows for up to 2,000 free Exhibits Plus Pass registrations.

Here are a few 2015 CES facts to include with your note:

- The International CES is the world's gathering place for all who thrive on the business of consumer technologies.
- CES is where business gets done – on the show floor, in and around our conference program, in chance encounters, planned meetings and special events.
- The 2015 CES will host more than 3,500 exhibitors in two million net sq. ft. of space across our three official venues – CES Tech East, CES Tech West and ARIA.

Working in unison, Tech East and Tech West will tell the full story of consumer technology, better accommodate emerging tech and highlight hot, new innovations. ARIA, home to the all-new C Space, connects content creativity and brand influencers in one submersive CES experience.
