

2009 INTERNATIONAL CES®

You're Invited

JANUARY 8-11 | LAS VEGAS, NEVADA | CESweb.org

WHERE ENTERTAINMENT, TECHNOLOGY
AND BUSINESS CONVERGE

SEE YOURSELF IN THE DIGITAL ECONOMY

Be our guest at the 2009 International CES!

The International CES is the world's largest consumer technology tradeshow, and we want you to be a part of it. Network with potential partners, find your next big supplier, learn from industry leaders and take advantage of the year's best deals.

Coming this January, the 2009 International CES is your opportunity to:

- Access more than 2,700 exhibitors from every major CE product category.
- Research the newest industry trends.
- Discover more than a dozen market-specific TechZones.
- Reach new suppliers across 30 product categories.
- Make the deals that will make your year.
- Grow your profits.

Register online at CESweb.org now to receive your FREE Exhibits Plus badge and gain access to:

- Exhibits at all CES venues.
- Popular SuperSessions on hot industry topics.
- Keynote addresses from industry visionaries.
- Select conference sessions (some sessions require a fee).

How to save with this invitation:

Register for free. Visit CESweb.org/register before December 15. Use priority code INVT, and we'll waive the $100 (U.S.) registration fee.

Build your perfect show

Create a CES experience that is uniquely yours by using MyCES Personal Planner. Create personalized agendas and maps based on your interests and business goals.
