Indie Game Developers Can Exhibit for Free "SELECTED INDIE 80" Entry Applications Now Open!

Sponsorship Applications Now Open for Companies Supporting Indie Game Projects!

---

The Computer Entertainment Supplier's Association (CESA), chaired by Haruhiro Tsujimoto, is pleased to announce the launch of the entry process for "SELECTED INDIE 80," a program allowing indie game developers to exhibit for free at Tokyo Game Show 2025 (TGS2025), co-hosted by Nikkei BP and Sony Music Solutions. The initiative aims to provide a platform for indie game developers to showcase their work and contribute to the growth of the global gaming industry. Applications are open starting today via the dedicated web entry form. The deadline for submission is 23:59, Friday, May 16, 2025 (JST).

*For details, visit(<https://events.nikkeibp.co.jp/tgs/2025/jp/exhibitor/indie/>)

From the submitted entries, 80 titles will be selected through a review process to be featured as "SELECTED INDIE 80" at Makuhari Messe. These titles will also receive various promotional opportunities, including exposure on the official TGS website. Additionally, all selected titles will be automatically entered into the "Sense of Wonder Night (SOWN)," a game idea presentation contest. Be sure to review the eligibility requirements and conditions before applying!

■ Benefits for "SELECTED INDIE 80" Participants

Booth space, PC, and monitor equipment for exhibiting will be provided free of charge. A dedicated promotional page on the official TGS website will be created. Various promotional activities will be conducted leading up to TGS2025.

■ Sponsorship applications for indie game projects are now open

At the Tokyo Game Show, through "SELECTED INDIE 80," we aim to support indie game developers by providing a platform for them to showcase their work and reduce the burden of participation. We are seeking sponsors who will assist in conveying the fun of these games to fans worldwide. Sponsors will receive various benefits, including logo placement, exhibition booths, and business negotiation tables, to enhance the presence of the indie game industry. We encourage platform holders, publishers, hardware manufacturers, and others who support indie game developers to consider sponsoring.

The application deadline is Monday, March 31.

■ Sense of Wonder Night 2025

The 18th edition of Sense of Wonder Night (SOWN) will be held this year. SOWN is a pitch contest for outstanding game ideas that evoke the "Sense of Wonder"—a feeling of something changing in one's world the moment one sees or hears the concept. Eight excellent ideas will be selected, and the finalists of "Sense of Wonder Night 2025" will be given the opportunity to present their works. Starting this year, in addition to the "SELECTED INDIE 80" exhibitors, exhibitors from the regular indie game section can also apply. Presentations will be held on the second day of the event, and after judging, the Grand Prize winner will receive $3,000 USD, while other awards will receive $500 USD each.

■ "Sense of Wonder Night (SOWN) 2025" Application Details

Event Date: Fri, September 26, 2025 at Makuhari Messe
